

I have a speech disability and Video Assisted speech-to-Speech would benefit me. People with speech disabilities should benefit from the fruits of the internet, just like people with other disabilities. The telephone should be available to everyone.